INNERrOUTe | Wing Factory
(Rainchant Eclectic Records RER 1002)

A compositionally and melodically oriented free-improv genre-bending collective jazz quartet, touching rarely experienced and emotionally beautiful realms.

Rick Savage - trumpet/flugelhorn, Joe Vincent Tranchina - keyboard, Bill McCrossen - bass & Michael D'Agostino - drums.

“...for those who embrace the never-to-be-repeated avenues of exploration, and are inclined toward in-the-moment inspiration, then INNERrOUTe is a band to find and appreciate.”

--Doug Simpson/Audiophile Audition (audaud.com)

“21st-century jazz that not only sounds new and fresh but also touches one deeply.”
-Willard Maus (lively-arts.com)

There's a wondrous element of exploration to everything . . . because four very individual musicians found a way to work with each other, and yet completely within themselves, all at the same time.
“INNERrOUTe” is an intriguing voyage . . .—Timothy Malcolm Times Herald-Record

Gabriele Tranchina | Of Sailing Ships and the Stars in Your Eyes
(Rainchant Eclectic Records RER 1001)

Multi-lingual World Jazz. Produced by Rick Savage, co-produced by Joe Vincent Tranchina. Gabriele Tranchina - voice, Joe Vincent Tranchina - piano/composition/arrangements, Carlo De Rosa - bass, Vince Cherico - drums/percussion & Renato Thoms - percussion. Gabriele sings in 5 languages and vocalise. Of the 12 tunes on the CD, Joe Vincent Tranchina composed 6: music, lyrics & a German love poem setting.

“...your ears will be mightily satisfied as you listen to Gabriele’s performance on Joe’s original composition “Straphangin”... there’s a word for songs like this – “hip”; ... Joe’s keyboards are KILLER on this one! Most readers here know that I prefer music that “blends” different cultural influences with high-energy playing and room for each of the players to excel... that’s exactly what you’ll hear on my personal favorite of the dozen songs offered up for your aural delight... the dynamic closer, “A Song for India”, transcends all boundaries and labels... Joe’s high-talent for composition is most evident on this piece...”

-Dick Metcalf - Contemporary Fusion Review

• TV Theme Composition:

I’m very happy to announce that I was asked to compose the theme music for Manhattan Neighborhood Network’s The Jeanie LoVetri Show: Our Vocal Universe. The show will air multiple times per month and have a roster of guests from the larger vocal universe world.

• Awards:

Just received my 20th ASCAP Popular Music Award (Jazz Category), 20 awards 1997-present, for original compositions, performances, and creative contributions to American music.
